

Join us this lenten season in

An American Lent 2018

from the Repentance Project

THE Repentance
PROJECT

More than two years ago, a group of black and white Christians met to ask the question:

“How can people concretely recognize the awful legacy of racial oppression in the United States and its ongoing effects in the African American community?”

This online lenten experience, An American Lent, is the start of an answer to that question.

We invite you to join us during this season of learning and self-examination and hope as we

RECOGNIZE slavery’s persistent legacy,
REPENT with sorrow,
and RESPOND meaningfully,
in the context of RELATIONSHIPS.

This 50-day devotional tool traces the history of racial injustice in America and the various ways its legacy endures to this day - all in the context of God’s call to repentance, unity, and the beloved community.

Join in on your own, with family, church, small group, or friends.

We start this year’s journey together on Ash Wednesday, February 14th, 2018
