

DEDICATING “THE CORHAVEN GRAVEYARD”

SATURDAY, APRIL 30
2PM-4PM
2883 QUICKSBURG ROAD
QUICKSBURG VA, 22847

Many slave cemeteries around the country are lost to the earth, forgotten, or hidden. So also was one in Shenandoah County, VA until recently. Over the past 15 months many members of this community have worked to clear it, research it, create a suitable memorial, and protect it.

On Saturday, April 30, we will dedicate it. All are welcome and invited to attend.

On that day we will recognize the dignity of those who lay in the soil, grieve what these men and women represent, and learn about our past while affirming hope for the future. We'll hear from members of the community, and offer prayers and song with space for reflection.

Please bring a folding chair. Refreshments will be provided.

For more information visit <http://inthecoracle.org/what-we-do/slave-cemetery-at-corhaven/>

Please RSVP to Jennifer Custer at inthecoracle@gmail.com
Contact Sarah Kohrs for more information at kohrs@shentel.net
Directions at <http://inthecoracle.org/corhaven/directions/>