

*Corhaven Graveyard & Coming to the Table
invite you to view*

12 YEARS A SLAVE

the 2013 movie of Solomon Northup's 1853 autobiography of the same name

JUNE 24th 10AM
Winchester Alamo Drafthouse Cinema

Circle Process (opportunity to explore via dialogue how we can heal the ongoing wounds from racial injustice rooted in the U.S. history of slavery) will follow the show. This important event confronts the realities of slavery, recognizes the trauma caused by racism, & provides a way for you to contribute to non-profits taking action toward personal and relational transformation for the purpose of true peace & reconciliation in our families, in our communities, and in our world.

Tickets $8/each at <https://drafthouse.com/winchester/show/12-years-a-slave>

PROCEEDS FROM TICKET SALES & 15% OF FOOD PURCHASES AFTER THE COST OF RIGHTS TO SHOW THE MOVIE WILL BENEFIT CORHAVEN GRAVEYARD, A MINISTRY OF CORACLE, & LOCAL AFFILIATE GROUPS OF COMING TO THE TABLE. MORE INFORMATION? Contact Sarah Kohrs at corhavengraveyard@gmail.com or (434) 922-2029.

“What difference is there in the color of the soul?”