

'Soundings'—An Irregular Seminar Series offered by Coracle and partners

The "Soundings" seminar series are times set aside to consider together topics that are important for our society, for the Church, and for our own spiritual journeys. To 'take a sounding' is a nautical term about using depth to determine where you are and where you're going. These fall seminars are designed to help us do just that.

RSVP at inthecoracle.org/registration/ or just show up!
Donations are appreciated but not required.

"Catholics and Evangelicals Together"    Wednesday, October 8, 7.00pm-9.30pm with Bill Haley & Soren Johnson at St. James Catholic Church 905 Park Ave., Falls Church, VA

Evangelicals have so much to learn from Catholics, and Catholics have so much to learn from Evangelicals. Our traditions not only enrich each other, they need each other. We need each other. Jesus prayed in for unity in his body (John 17), and we are called to something greater. We will explore various aspects of each Christian tradition that the other will benefit from and explore why greater Christian unity matters today in the United States. Offered in partnership with The John Paul II Fellowship.

"Saved for What: The Breadth of the Gospel"    Wed., November 12, 7.00pm-9.30pm with Bill Haley & Soren Johnson at Restoration Anglican Church 1815 N. Quincy St., Arlington, VA

Being forgiven for our sins by the blood of Jesus so that we might be saved is an essential part of the Gospel, but it is not the only part of the Gospel, nor even it's central assertion. There is so much more that we've been saved for, and an over-emphasis on some parts of the Gospel means we might miss even more compelling parts, which can lead to less-than-alive faith and life. We will explore the breadth of the Gospel, and why the good news really is good news! Offered in Partnership with the John Paul II Fellowship.
